RECOMMENDATION

The Administration recommends exploring the potential of working with the McKennie's Magical Youth Mission to provide soccer camps for the Miami Beach youth.

BACKGROUND/HISTORY

During the October 30, 2024 City Commission meeting, at the request of Commissioner Joseph Magazine, the Mayor and City Commission referred a discussion to the Finance and Economic Resiliency Committee ("FERC"), to discuss potential financing for McKennie's Magical Youth Mission Foundation Youth Soccer Camps with the participation of the U.S. Men's National Team Players (Exhibit A).

ANALYSIS

McKennie's Magical Youth Mission (the "Foundation") is dedicated to learning, impacting, and inspiring the underserved community. Established by Weston McKennie, a professional soccer player for Juventus and the United States Men's National Team. The Foundation is dedicated to enriching the lives of orphans and underprivileged children. By harnessing the power of community and compassion, the Foundation aims to open doors to new opportunities and brighter futures for the youth they serve. Through targeted programs and collaborative efforts, they provide essential resources, education and support, empowering children to achieve their full potential and dream big.

Commissioner Magazine would like to have a discussion, including the Parks and Recreation Department, on the exploration to work with the organization.
