ANALYSIS

Please place on the July 24, 2024, City Commission agenda a referral to the to the Public Safety and Neighborhood Quality of Life Committee ("PSNQLC") to discuss extending the hours of metered parking spaces located adjacent to North Beach businesses in order to prioritize parking spaces located near businesses for the use of business patrons. Currently, metered spaces in North Beach are unregulated after 6:00 pm. Competing uses around businesses should be discouraged until after business closing hours. Business patrons should be given priority for the use of metered parking spaces located adjacent to local businesses in order to promote local business patronage and generate more economic activity in the area.
