WHEREAS, on January 31, 2024, the Mayor and City Commission referred a discussion regarding potential solutions to light pollution from multi-colored decorative lighting emanating from adjacent properties to the Public Safety and Neighborhood Quality of Life Committee ("PSNQLC") for the Committee's deliberation; and

WHEREAS, a discussion was held at the March 20, 2024 PSNQLC meeting where the Committee voted to return the item to the full City Commission with a positive recommendation to enact an ordinance to prohibit garish flashing, strobing and/or multicolored lights on residential properties that would unreasonably disturb the quiet enjoyment of a neighboring residence by a nearby resident; and

WHEREAS, this Ordinance will preserve and enhance the environment of the City of Miami Beach in residential neighborhoods and the improve the quality of life of residents.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE MAYOR AND CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA, AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. Article XII of Chapter 46 and Section 46-250 of the Code of the City Miami Beach are hereby created as follows:

CHAPTER 46
ENVIRONMENT

ARTICLE XII. LIGHT POLLUTION

Sec. 46-250. ~~Garish flashing, and/or strobing, and/or multicolored~~ lights prohibited.

- (a) The use of ~~garish flashing, and/or strobing, and/or multicolored~~ lights and/or multidirectional moving light beams on, or emanating from, ~~on~~ residential properties that unreasonably disturbs the quiet enjoyment of a neighboring residence by a nearby resident is hereby prohibited.

~~(b) The prohibition contained herein shall be abated for a period thirty days before and ten days after national holidays and major religious holidays.~~

(b)(e) Enforcement.

- (1) If a code compliance officer finds a violation of this article, the code compliance officer shall first issue a written warning for a first violation, and if the violation is not cured within 24 hours, then issue a notice of violation to the property owner or the landscape maintenance company. The notice of violation shall inform the violator of the nature of the violation, amount of fine for which the violator is liable, instructions and due date for paying the fine, that the violation may be appealed by requesting an administrative hearing before a special master magistrate within ten days after service of the notice of violation, and that the failure to appeal the violation within ten days of service shall constitute an admission of the violation and a waiver of the right to a hearing.
- (2) A violator who has been served with a notice of violation must elect to either:
 - a. Pay the following civil fine:
 - i. First violation within a 12-month period $500 250.00;
 - ii. Second violation within a 12-month period $750 500.00;
 - iii. Third or subsequent violation within a 12-month period $1,000.00; or
 - b. Request an administrative hearing before a special master magistrate to appeal the notice of violation, which must be requested within ten days of the service of the notice of violation. The procedures for appeal by administrative hearing of the notice of violation shall be as set forth in sections 30-72 and 30-73 of this Code. Applications for hearings must be accompanied by a fee as approved by a resolution of the city commission, which shall be refunded if the named violator prevails in the appeal.
- (3) Failure to pay the civil fine, or to timely request an administrative hearing before a special master magistrate, shall constitute a waiver of the violator's right to an administrative hearing before the special master magistrate, and shall be treated as an admission of the violation, for which fines and penalties shall be assessed accordingly.
- (4) A certified copy of an order imposing a fine may be recorded in the public records, and thereafter shall constitute a lien upon any real or personal property owned by the violator, which may be enforced in the same manner as a court judgment by the sheriffs of this state, including levy against the violator's real or personal property, but shall not be deemed to be a court judgment except for enforcement purposes. After three months following the recording of any such lien that remains unpaid, the city may foreclose or otherwise execute upon the lien for the amount of the lien plus accrued interest.
- (5) The special master magistrate shall be prohibited from hearing the merits of the notice of violation or considering the timeliness of a request for an administrative hearing if the violator has failed to request an administrative hearing within ten days of the service of the notice of violation. The special master magistrate shall not have discretion to alter the penalties prescribed in this article. Any party aggrieved by a decision of a special master magistrate may appeal that decision to a court of competent jurisdiction.
