TITLE: REPEAL OF CD-2 CO-LIVING INCENTIVES & REDUCE TC-C CO-LIVING CAP
AN ORDINANCE OF THE MAYOR AND CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA, AMENDING THE MIAMI BEACH RESILIENCY CODE, BY AMENDING CHAPTER 7, ENTITLED "ZONING DISTRICT REGULATIONS," ARTICLE II, ENTITLED "DISTRICT REGULATIONS," AT SECTION 7.2.11, ENTITLED "CD-2 COMMERCIAL, MEDIUM INTENSITY DISTRICT," AT SUBSECTION 7.2.11.5, ENTITLED "WASHINGTON AVENUE (CD-2)," BY REPEALING CO-LIVING UNITS AS AN ALLOWABLE USE AND ELIMINATING ALL REFERENCES TO SUCH; AND BY AMENDING SECTION 7.2.14, ENTITLED "NORTH BEACH TOWNCENTER CORE DISTRICT (TC)," AT SUBSECTION 7.2.14.6, ENTITLED "TOWN CENTER-CENTRAL CORE (TC-C) DISTRICT," BY REDUCING THE MAXIMUM NUMBER OF CO-LIVING UNITS THAT MAY BE BUILT WITHIN THE DISTRICT; AND PROVIDING FOR CODIFICATION, REPEALER, SEVERABILITY, AND AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

RECOMMENDATION

The Administration recommends that the City Commission approve the subject ordinance.

BACKGROUND/HISTORY

On December 13, 2023, at the request of Commissioner Alex Fernandez, the Mayor and City Commission referred a discussion item (C4 T) pertaining to co-living units to the Land Use and Sustainability Committee (LUSC) and the Planning Board. Commissioners Tanya K. Bhatt and Joseph Magazine are co-sponsors of the proposal.

On February 5, 2024, the LUSC recommended that the Planning Board transmit the proposed ordinance to the City Commission with a favorable recommendation.

ANALYSIS

Co-living units, which were introduced pursuant to the creation of the North Beach Town Center Central Core District (TC-C) in 2018, are defined as follows:

Co-living shall mean a small multi-family residential dwelling unit that includes sanitary facilities and provides access to kitchen facilities; however, such facilities may be shared by multiple units. Additionally, co-living buildings shall contain amenities that are shared by all users.

Currently, co-living units are only permitted along limited portions of Washington Avenue, and in the North Beach Town Center. Specifically, in South Beach, co-living is only permitted on the west side of Washington Avenue between 6th Street and 15th Street, and on both sides of Washington Avenue between 15th Street and 16th Street. In North Beach, co-living is only permitted in the TC-C district and is subject to a limit of 550 co-living units throughout the entire district.

The only co-living project previously approved on Washington Avenue was located at 1234-1260 Washington Avenue. Although a demolition permit was issued for the project, and demolition commenced, a full building permit was never issued. A previous application for co-living units on the east side of Washington Avenue (1500 block) never received approval and has been converted to an application for a hotel development with accessory uses.

The following is a summary of co-living units in the North Beach TC-C district that have obtained a building permit process number as of October 1, 2023:

Project Address	Co-Living Units
7118-7114 Collins Avenue	168
7125-7145 Carlyle Avenue	121
6970 Collins Avenue	20
409 71st Street	139
6973 Indian Creek Drive	81
Total Units Proposed	529
Units Previously Remaining	21

Co-living units in the TC-C district are only permitted for projects that have obtained a building permit process number by October 1, 2023. As such the 21 co-living units shown above as "previously remaining" can longer be utilized. Additionally, if any of the permits for the above noted projects become inactive or expire, the associated co-living units would expire and could not be re-activated.

The proposed ordinance removes the ability for any co-living units on Washington Avenue, repealing all references to such use in the Washington Avenue corridor. This would likely have a negligible impact as the previously approved proposal, as noted above, does not appear to be moving forward.

Regarding the TC-C district, no additional co-living units beyond the 529 units currently permitted would be allowed in the district. As proposed, the ordinance would reduce the number of co-living units from the current cap of 550 to 529.

PLANNING BOARD REVIEW

On April 25, 2024, the Planning Board held a public hearing and transmitted the proposed ordinance to the City Commission with a favorable recommendation (7-0).

APPLICATION FEE WAIVER

The subject amendment is proposed on a comprehensive, citywide basis, and not on behalf of a private applicant or third party. Pursuant to section 2.4.1.c of the Land Development Regulations of the City Code, amendments to the City Code require the payment of the applicable fees in section 2.2.3.5, 2.2.3.6, and appendix A to the City Code. These fees may be waived by a five-sevenths (5/7ths) vote of the City Commission, based upon one or more of the following circumstances:

2. Upon the written recommendation of the City Manager acknowledging a documented financial hardship of a property owner(s) or developer(s).
3. If requested, in writing, by a non-profit organization, neighborhood association, or homeowner's association for property owned by any such organization or association, so long as the request demonstrates that a public purpose is achieved by enacting the applicable amendment.

The Administration recommends that the City Commission waive the applicable fees based on circumstances unique to the proposed amendment.

BUSINESS IMPACT ESTIMATE

Djokovic in Wimbledon semis after de Minaur withdraws

Field Level Media

Novak Djokovic advanced to his record-tying 13th semifinal Wimbledon after Australia's Alex de Minaur withdrew due to a hip injury on Wednesday. Scheduled to face Djokovic in the quarterfinals, de Minaur admitted that he injured his hip in the closing stages of his 6-2, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3 win over Arthur Fils in the fourth round on Monday. After attempting to warm up for less than eight minutes early in the day, de Minaur notified Wimbledon officials and Djokovic's camp he would be unable to recover in time to challenge the second-seeded Djokovic.

"I'm devastated, but I had to pull out due to a hip injury, a little tear of the fiber cartilage that is at the end to the adductor," de Minaur said. "I felt a loud crack during the last three points of my match against Fils and got a scan yesterday and it confirms that this was the injury. [There is] a high risk of making it worse if I was to step on court."

With the walkover win, Djokovic is tied with Roger Federer for the most Wimbledon semifinal appearances by a man in tournament history. The 37-year-old Serbian will square off Friday against No. 25 seed Lorenzo Musetti. The Italian ousted No. 13 Taylor Fritz 3-6, 7-6 (5), 6-2, 3-6, 6-1 on Wednesday.

As for de Minaur, he said he was at peace with his decision despite the chance to defeat Djokovic for the second time this year.

"It's no secret that, at this stage of my career, this was the biggest match of my career. So wanted to do anything I could to play," he said. "I got the results yesterday. I knew what the results were yesterday. I still wanted to wake up today hoping that I would feel some sort of miracle and not feel it while I'm walking."

Serbia's Novak Djokovic is tied with Roger Federer for the most Wimbledon semifinal appearances by a man.

"The problem with me going out and playing is that one stretch, one slide, one anything, can make an injury [recovery] go from three to six weeks to four months. It's too much to risk."

Meanwhile, Musetti reached the final four at a Grand Slam for the first time with his victory over Fritz in 3 hours and 27 minutes. The 22-year-old is just the fourth Italian man to reach the semifinals at the All England Club, joining Janik Sinner (2023), Matteo Berrettini (2021) and Nicola Pietrangeli (1960).

Musetti dominated the decisive fifth set, posting 11 winners and breaking

Fritz's serve twice while also winning all seven of his points at the net. "I don't think I've realized yet what I have done," Musetti said in his on-court interview. "I was talking with my team about how to play on the big stage... It was the first time I've had the opportunity to walk out on this amazing stadium and it's been an honor for me."

"At the start of the match Taylor was really leading the game, especially with his serve, and I couldn't return well. In the second set I had a big reaction after breaking at the start and that changed my mind, my attitude. That probably made the difference and hopefully on Friday I will have the same one."

Musetti finished the match with 35 winners and 39 unforced errors, compared to 41 and 55 for Fritz.

Mystics fend off furious Fever rally, big game by Caitlin Clark, 89-84

Field Level Media

Ariel Atkins scored 26 points and the Washington Mystics survived for an 89-84 road victory over the Indiana Fever on Wednesday afternoon at Indiana's Stefanie Dolson and Stefanie Dolson.

Julie Vanloo added 13 points apiece, while Aaliyah Edwards and Shatori Walker-Kimbrough came off the bench for 12 and 10 points, respectively.

The Mystics (6-17) finished a four-game road stretch with a 2-2 mark, snapping a two-game skid. They also avenged two losses to Indiana.

Caitlin Clark, in her first game since becoming the first rookie in WNBA history with a triple-double, racked up 29 points, 13 assists and five rebounds. She made five 3-pointers and was good on four free throws in the last 65 seconds.

Kelsey Mitchell supplied 15 points for Indiana, but she was 0-for-8 on 3s.

The Fever (9-14) were mistake-prone with 23 turnovers, but they made a late 12-0 run to trim the deficit to 85-80. Later, it was 87-84 after a Vanloo free throw.

Atkins shot 10-for-17 from the field to boost Washington's shooting percentage, which was 44 percent. Vanloo connected on three 3-point shots.

The margin was 76-55 entering the fourth quarter. The Fever pulled within 77-68 on Clark's jumper with about six minutes to go. Jade Melton and Atkins each hit two free throws before the Fever scored again.

The Mystics stormed out to a 33-19 lead early in the second quarter.

Caitlin Clark scored 29 points on Wednesday.

They took advantage of nine Indiana turnovers, while Vanloo drained a pair of 3-point shots. Washington received immediate offensive contributions from reserves; four bench players produced points across the game's first 12 minutes.

Indiana's early ball-handling problems negated the teams not shooting for much of the first half. The Fever shot 53.4 percent for the game, including 53.6 percent before halftime.

The injury list has remained a factor for the Mystics, who were without Shakira Austin (thigh), Karlise Samuelson (hand) and Brittney Sykes (hip). Emily Engstler was back in action after missing Saturday's game with an illness. She finished with four points.

Chennedy Carter scored 18 points and rookies Angel Reese and Kamila Cardoso both notched double-doubles to boost host Chicago over Atlanta on Wednesday.

Chicago outscored Atlanta 24-15 in the fourth quarter on the way to its third victory in the past four games.

The Dream have lost eight of nine, a slide that includes an eight-point home loss to Chicago on July 2.

Marina Mabrey converted a three-point play to break a tie and put the Sky ahead 68-65 with 4:17 remaining in the game. Chicago (9-12) never relinquished the lead after that but the Dream stuck around.

Allisha Gray's layup off a backdoor-cut feed from Maya Caldwell drew Atlanta (7-14) to within a point with 1:23 to go.

Dana Evans missed a free throw after referees whistled Atlanta coach Tanisha Wright for a technical foul, but the Sky recovered as Carter and Reese scored baskets on the next two possessions to help Chicago pull away.

Reese snagged a game-high 13 rebounds to go with 11 points that left the crowd in suspense.
