TITLE: A RESOLUTION OF THE MAYOR AND CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA, APPROVING, BY 5/7TH VOTE, THE PLACEMENT OF A COMMEMORATIVE PLAQUE IN THE NORTHWEST CORNER OF PRIDE PARK NEAR A TREE IN HONOR OF CIVIL RIGHTS ACTIVIST AND PRESERVATIONIST JOE TOM EASLEY; PURSUANT TO SECTION 82-504 OF THE CITY CODE.

RECOMMENDATION

Approve, by 5/7th vote, the placement of a commemorative plaque in the northwest corner of Pride Park near a tree in honor of civil rights activist and preservationist Joe Tom Easley; pursuant to section 82-504 of the City Code.

BACKGROUND/HISTORY

At the May 15, 2024 City Commission meeting, at the request of Commissioner Tanya K. Bhatt, the Mayor and City Commission referred an item (C4 M) to the Public Safety and Neighborhood Quality of Life Committee ("PSNQLC"), to discuss the placement of a plaque in honor of civil rights activist and preservationist Joe Tom Easley at Pride Park. (Exhibit A).

At the June 5, 2024 Public Safety and Neighborhood Quality of Life Committee ("PSNQLC") meeting, the item was moved to the full Commission with a favorable recommendation. (Exhibit B).

During the July 24, 2024 City Commission meeting, Resolution No. 2024-33191 was passed accepting the recommendation of the Public Safety and Neighborhood Quality of Life Committee, at its June 5, 2024 meeting, to approve the placement of a commemorative plaque in the northwest corner of Pride Park near a tree in honor of civil rights activist and preservationist Joe Tom Easley; setting a public hearing on September 11, 2024, pursuant to Section 82-504 of the City Code, to consider the installation of the commemorative plaque; and directing the City Clerk to publish the appropriate public notice.

ANALYSIS

Joe Tom Easley, who passed away in February of 2022, was a leading national civil and gay rights activist, a noted attorney instrumental in getting "don't ask/don't tell" repealed, and a fierce advocate for historic preservation, serving on the board of the Miami Design Preservation League for many years.

His marriage to husband Peter Freiberg was among the first same-sex unions announced in the New York Times. Mr. Easley served in the Navy during the Vietnam War, spent years fighting for the repeal of "don't ask/don't tell," and used his skills as a speaker, teacher and leader to serve the gay community. He was a chairman of the Servicemembers Legal Defense Network, a group that sought to end discrimination against gay military personnel, served as chairman of the Lambda Legal Defense and Education Fund, an LGBT group, and as president of the Human Rights Campaign Foundation.

His husband, Peter Freiberg, and the Palm View Neighborhood Association have requested that the City of Miami Beach honor Joe Tom Easley. They request doing so within the Palm View neighborhood, and are suggesting to place the plaque near a tree in the northwest corner of Pride Park. Mr. Easley fought hard to make Pride Park happen and therefore, they believe it would be a suitable place to honor his memory and legacy.

The Parks and Recreation Department and the Economic Development Department support placing a memorial plaque in the northwest corner of Pride Park near a tree. The cost to produce and install a 12" x 12" plaque and a supporting pedestal, is approximately $3,000 - $5,000.

FISCAL IMPACT STATEMENT

The Parks and Recreation Department will be covering the costs through its current budget, estimated at approximately $3,000 - $5,000.

COMMISSION MEMORANDUM

TO: Honorable Mayor and Members of the City Commission
FROM: Commissioner Tanya K. Bhatt
DATE: May 15, 2024

SUBJECT: REFERRAL TO THE PUBLIC SAFETY AND NEIGHBORHOOD QUALITY OF LIFE COMMITTEE TO DISCUSS THE PLACEMENT OF A PLAQUE IN HONOR OF CIVIL RIGHTS ACTIVIST AND PRESERVATIONIST JOE TOM EASLEY AT PRIDE PARK.

ANALYSIS

Please place on the agenda a referral to the PSNQLC a discussion about installing a memorial park in Pride Park for late Miami Beach resident Joe Tom Easley. Joe Tom was a leading national civil and gay rights activist, was a noted attorney instrumental in getting "don't ask/don't tell" repealed, and was a fierce advocate for historic preservation, serving on the board of Miami Design Preservation League for many years.

His husband Peter Freiberg and the Palm View Neighborhood Association would like to have a plaque honoring Joe Tom, and while they initially thought someplace in their neighborhood might work, the feeling is that a location in the northwest corner of Pride Park, which Joe Tom fought hard to make happen, would be a more suitable location.

CONCLUSION:

It is recommended that the PSNQLC discuss and make a recommendation on the placement of a plaque in honor of civil rights activist and preservationist Joe Tom Easley at Pride Park. If recommended, and approved by the City Commission, this will require an appropriation of a budget, not to exceed $5,000, to purchase the plaque and pedestal.
